

Letter of condolence on the death of European Parliament President David Sassoli

Euroconsumers is greatly saddened to learn of the death of European Parliament President David Sassoli.

President Sassoli led the Parliament through one of its most difficult times as it continued its work as the voice of the citizens of the European Union during the coronavirus pandemic.

He was a champion of European integration and democracy, and will be remembered as a truly great President of the European citizen's house.

Our thoughts are now with his family and friends, and his colleagues at the Parliament.

May he Rest in Peace
